

Club News 27/3/2020

Canary Wharf Squash Classic, Daily Challenges to keep you active

Canary Wharf Squash Classic

Monday 9th March. It seems light years away now, when 35 Sundridge Park squash players descended on Canary Wharf from the leafy southern suburbs to witness the Squash equivalent of Tennis' Wimbledon - The Canary Wharf Squash Classic 2020.

We'd been there many times before, but never in such numbers. Word spreads though that we have a priority booking window and the momentum builds over the years - many have said that, as well as the great friendliness, competitive squash and socialising it's just another reason for being a member of Sundridge Park!

Click here to read Phil Ashton's full report.

Daily Challenges

We have been doing our best to set daily challenges and post information that might help you have fun while you are having to stay at home.

We have been loving the number of views and likes and even more brilliant when you post your attempts!

Really worth jumping onto our social media even if you are not normally a social media fan.

Please keep in touch, get involved in the challenges and stay safe!

Coronavirus

We will be updating this page with the latest information:

<https://thesundridgeparkclub.co.uk/coronavirus/>